

Extension Vegetable Seed Saving Program

The Bibb County Extension Office and Brent-Centreville Public Library are hosting a Vegetable Seed Saving Lunch-and-Learn workshop at the Brent-Centreville Public Library on Thursday, June 15, 2017 from 11:30 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

This program is for anyone that wants to learn the correct way to collect and save vegetable seeds.

Nelson Wynn, Regional Extension Agent serving Bibb County in Home Grounds, Gardens and Home Pests, will give reasons and ways to save your own vegetable seeds, male & female parts of a flower, pollination, plant types, collecting, preparing, and storing seeds.

The workshop will take place in conference room in the basement of the Library, which is located at the corner of Library Street and Walnut Street in Centreville, between McDonald's and the National Guard Armory.

There is no charge to attend the program, but please call the Bibb County Extension Office to pre-register at 205-926-4310.

The Alabama Cooperative Extension System (Alabama A&M University and Auburn University), is an equal opportunity educator and employer. Everyone is welcome!
